

Injured Spouse Instructions

This information applies only to taxes intercepted by the Office of State Debt Collection (OSDC)

If you are married, filed a joint return, and you had your state tax refund taken by the OSDC for a debt that your spouse individually owes, you may claim your part of a state tax refund if ALL of the following apply:

- 1. You received and reported income, such as wages, taxable interest, etc., on the joint return,
- 2. You had Utah income tax withheld from your wages; and
- 3. You were not married to your spouse when the debt was incurred.

The OSDC requires the following information from you to apply for injured spouse relief. If ALL of the above conditions apply and you want your share of the overpayment shown on the joint return refunded, you must:

- attach a completed form 8379 (Injured Spouse Allocation)
- attach a copy of your marriage license
- attach copies of your complete federal and state tax income tax returns
- attach copies of W-2, 1099 and other forms showing all Utah withholding amounts
- include a copy of the letter from OSDC that informed you that your tax refund was intercepted
